

A free society with a free media is essential in retaining what makes our country great. Conflicts of interest will turn our media into a beast not unlike what communist USSR endured. Please keep America a land of free speech with a system of checks and balances, not a country where Ted Turner or the like will run everything.